

Alejandro Espinosa Herrera

Professor at the Social and Political Environment Department

IPADE
BUSINESS SCHOOL
UNIVERSIDAD PANAMERICANA

Academic Degrees

- PhD in Politics, University of Oxford, Nuffield College.
- MA in Comparative Politics, University of Oxford, St. Anthony's College.
- MA in Latin American Studies, University of Oxford, St. Anthony's College.
- Bachelor in Economics, Tecnológico de Monterrey (ITESM).

Other studies:

- Certificate in Social Entrepreneurship, Said Business School, University of Oxford.

Managerial Background

- Partner, Family business in the hospitality industry.

Professional Activities

- Lecturer of Politics in Latin America. University of Oxford.
- Senior Analyst, CFE International LLC.
- Senior Advisor, Mexican Senate.
- Consultant, Latin American Intelligence, United Kingdom.
- Researcher, Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), Paris, France.
- Researcher, Mexican Institute for Competitiveness (IMCO).
- Analyst, Mexican Congress Budget Office.
- Research Assistant, Central Bank of Mexico.

Publishing:

- “El PRI y el Futuro del Sistema Político Mexicano”, Nexos, April 2019.
- “The campaign to save Mexico's vaquita porpoise faces the same problems as the War on Drugs”, The Conversation, June 2017.
- Why did Trump Fire Comey? Oxford University Politics Blog, June 2017.
- “Dispendio de la Deuda Pública de los Estados”, Nexos, December 2013.

Awards:

- Cum Laude Master Thesis, Latin American Centre, University of Oxford.
- Scholar of Nuffield College, University of Oxford.
- Scholar of the Mexican Ministry of Science (CONACYT).
- Scholar of the Mexican Ministry of Education.

Areas of Interest

- Geopolitics
- Populism and challenges of democracy
- Public Policy effects on the private sector
- Future of capitalism
- Energy politics, energy security and energy transition
- Inclusive growth